

"One should donate blood considering life saving measures as well as necessary for being healthy."

A blood donation camp was organized at Adhunik Power & Natural Resources Limited (APNRL) in collaboration with the Community Health Center, Gamharia, and with the support of MGM Hospital. Held at the company's health center, Jeevandayini, the camp successfully collected 47 units of blood, reflecting the community's strong commitment to social responsibility. The initiative witnessed enthusiastic participation from company employees and nearby villagers from residing villages, including Pindrabeda, Ramjivanpur, Badaharipur, Shrirampur, and Padampur. Mr. Arun Kumar Mishra, CEO of APNRL, praised the efforts, stating, "There is no greater virtue than saving a life; blood donation truly is Mahadaan."

Echoing this sentiment, HR Head Mr. Anil Kumar Soni added, "No donation is greater than blood donation."

Dedicated medical teams from MGM Hospital, Jamshedpur and the Community Health Center, Gamharia, played a crucial role in ensuring the success of the camp. CSR Head Mr. Sanjeet Sinha expressed gratitude to all donors, volunteers and supporters whose dedication contributed to the smooth execution of the drive.

Shri Mahesh Kumar Agarwal, Director, APNRL, visited the plant to oversee ongoing operations. During the visit, he conducted a comprehensive review of the plant's performance, assessed progress in key operational areas and engaged with the leadership team to discuss strategies for continued improvement and sustainable growth. He also carried out an inspection of multiple plant locations as part of his assessment.

Driving environmental stewardship for healthier earth

APNRL Celebrates World Earth Day with plantation drive and awareness campaign

Adhunik Power & Natural Resources Limited (APNRL) celebrated World Earth Day with a tree plantation drive and an awareness campaign at its factory premises. The initiative witnessed enthusiastic participation from the company's officers, employees, and school children from Padmapur Middle School located in Badahari-harpur. The event was inaugurated by Mr. Arun Kumar Mishra, CEO, who planted the first sapling, setting the tone for the day's activities. This was followed by the planting of saplings by several senior officials, including Mr. M. N. Singh, Mr. Rajesh Kumar Sharma, Mr. N. S. P. Rao, Mr. Anil Kumar Soni, Mr. S. K. Parvez, Mr. Kamlesh Kumar Jha, Mr. Ashish Dash and Mr. Sanjeet Sinha. All participants took an oath to protect and preserve nature. Addressing the gathering, Mr. Mishra highlighted that while the Earth provides abundant resources essential for human survival, it is the responsibility of humanity to use them judiciously and sustainably. He urged everyone to contribute actively toward creating a greener, healthier planet in honor of Earth Day. Ahead of the event, the company's CSR department had organized speech, essay-writing, and drawing competitions for the students of Padmapur Middle School, aimed at raising awareness about nature conservation. The winners of these competitions were felicitated with prizes during the Earth Day celebrations. Through this event, APNRL aimed to foster awareness about critical environmental issues such as pollution, climate change, and biodiversity loss, and to inspire collective action for the protection and preservation of the environment.

Hanuman jayanti celebrated with devotion

Hanuman Jayanti was celebrated with great devotion and enthusiasm at APNRL, marked by a special worship ceremony held at the Hanuman Temple within the Sati Steel premises. Employees came together to offer prayers and seek the blessings of Lord Hanuman, invoking strength, wisdom and protection.

The event witnessed the presence of CEO Mr. Arun Kumar Mishra along with Heads of Departments from various divisions, who actively participated in the worship. The spiritual gathering fostered a sense of unity, reverence and collective harmony among all present.

Felicitation to St. Mary's English School Band team
